

COMPANY OVERVIEW

Animus Systems LLC supplies commercial office furniture and workspace systems to federal, state and local government agencies, nationwide and internationally. We furnish complete spaces, from open-office workstations and private offices to conference rooms, reception areas and break rooms, with a single point of contact from quote to installation.

Animus is 100% owned and operated by Scott A. Budlove, a service-disabled U.S. Marine Corps veteran who deployed to the Persian Gulf and Bosnia.

CORE COMPETENCIES

- Workstations and benching: panel systems, privacy screens, storage and power
- Height-adjustable desk: sit-to-stand, freestanding or panel-supported
- Private offices: desks, returns, storage and executive suites
- Seating: ergonomic task, executive, guest, stacking and stools
- Conference and training: meeting, flip-top and standing tables
- Lounge and reception: modular sofas, reception desks, occasional tables
- Glass walls: frameless glass for offices and meeting rooms
- Break rooms: coffee stations, cafe and end tables

SERVICES

- Space planning, layouts and product specifications
- Itemized written quotes with lead times and delivery terms
- Dock delivery, inside delivery or full installation
- Product data sheets and finish samples on request

DIFFERENTIATORS

- Veteran-led accountability. Owned and run by a Marine who stays responsible for every order.
- One point of contact from the first call to the final walkthrough.
- Complete workspace lines from a single source, reducing vendors and coordination.
- Responsive to RFQs, RFPs and sources sought notices, and to micro-purchases.
